

The Arlington School District #3 Board of Directors has named Kevin Hunking as the next Superintendent.

Hunking is in his 14th year working as an administrator. He is currently employed with the Multnomah Education Service District as a Principal. His previous administrative stands have been with the Ontario School District, Bering Strait School District in Koyuk, AK and West Hawaii School District in Kealahou, HI. Hunking is a decorated combat veteran, having served in the US Military and has been active in his community as a coach, 4-H leader and Reserve Deputy Sheriff.

Hunking was one of five candidates to be selected for the superintendent interview process. Others that were offered interviews were James Baldwin, Beth Burton, Kathleen Jackson and Wayne Kostur. Burton declined the interview as she had accepted the position of Superintendent in Imbler, Oregon. The four candidates that interviewed on March 18th, participated in an interview process that included ASD staff, Arlington community members and the ASD School Board.

Steve Boynton, current Superintendent of ASD, has accepted a position as the Superintendent of the Lincoln County School District.
